Aries Love & Sex Forecast 2010:

Typically, Aries is a playful sign who's more about conquest and flirting when it comes to dating and love than anything else. This year, all of your "old ways" might go out the window as serious Saturn enters your relationship sector in 2010 and will demand karmic retribution. Lucky for you, if you work with Saturn this year you have amazing potential for a stable and committed partnership.

In addition to this Jupiter and Uranus will give you a taste of expansion and personal revolution as they make cameo appearances in your sign from the end of May 2010 until September of 2010. Everything you thought you knew about love and sex is about to change!

Aries in a Relationship Forecast 2010:

In 2010 you may have significant tests to your relationship. Saturn entered your partnership sector on October 29th 2009 and will remain there all year with the exception of April 7th – July 21st 2010 when he gives you a break. A marriage or committed partnership may begin to feel like a burden. You may discover that the old "ball and chain" is too much for you to handle. If you're in love then getting through this cycle will only strengthen your union, Aries.

Single & Dating Aries Forecast 2010:

In 2010 it could be time for Aries to settle down and create a lasting partnership. But the year doesn't begin without its fair share of difficulty. From January until after March 10th 2010 you might feel as if your sex life is suffering since Mars will be retrograde in your 5th house of sex and love. After this has passed however it's possible that Saturn's influence in your 7th house of partnership will bring stability to a light hearted affair. You'll discover that you are capable of commitment and there's more to dating than sex. Yes, there really is, Aries!
