Taurus Love & Sex Forecast 2010:

When it comes to love Taurus is a sign that demands physical presence. A long distance relationship or cyber sex just doesn't cut it for you in 2010 since you've got the most acute senses out of anyone else in the zodiac. Sign compatibility will depend on the other person's ability to meet your needs.

In 2010 you may encounter some frustration in love since what you want won't always be what you'll get, dear Taurus. Try not to be such a glutton when it comes to sex. Don't lower your standards, but lose the temptation to engage in power struggles this year. Avoid using sex as a weapon – this year especially that will never work.

Taurus in a Relationship Forecast 2010:

This year you have the potential to wrap up some issues that may be haunting you and your partner from the past – particularly issues around intimacy, trust and sex. Venus, your ruling planet, will be retrograde in your 7th house of partnership from October 8th 2010 until November 18th 2010. This will force you to revisit any past betrayals in your relationship and try to heal from your wounds, Taurus. It's time to decide if you can forgive and forget. If you can, true healing can take place. If you can't, it will be time for the Taurus to move on.

Single & Dating Taurus Forecast 2010:

In 2010 Taurus, your love life will finally open up again! Saturn, the planet of restriction and karma, has been in your 5th house of love and sex for 2 years which severely limited your ability to feel love and pleasure. You may have had a rough dry spell, and dating disasters. Luckily Saturn will move on in the year 2010 and will only be in your 5th house from April 7th 2010 – July 21st 2010 just to make sure you have a crystallized definition of love. It's time to open your heart.
